

SLN DEGREE COLLEGE

Alamur Road, Anantapuramu

Affiliated to S.K. University

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Department of English was started in the year 2016 with an UG Courses B.Sc (Maths, Statistics, and Computer Science), Physics, B.Sc (Maths, Physics, and Computer Science), and B.Com Computer applications. In the year 2017 B.Sc (Maths, Electronics, and Computer Science) was introduced as First Language.

The department is having well qualified and experienced faculty members. The faculty is a perfect blend of different specializations in English and applications to impart their expertise in handling diversified courses of the UG programs. The teaching methodology in the department goes beyond fulfilling the syllabus requirements of the University, to meet the today's industry needs. Faculty motivates and guides the students to do mini projects in core subjects. Special focus will be given to develop Communication and Soft Skills. The Department adopted and made the ICT in teaching techniques effectively.

Mission, Vision, and Values

Our Mission

The English Department helps students to build knowledge of the content and methods of literary studies, English education, and academic, professional, and creative writing. In addition, our faculty is committed to an interdisciplinary approach to knowledge, evident in their involvement in programs such as Ethnic Studies, Women's Studies, Film Studies, International Studies, and Environmental Studies. Our graduates are well prepared for professional and graduate study and for lifelong learning. They pursue careers in education, research, business, law, government, and publishing. The Department's policies and its reading- and writing-intensive curriculum demonstrate our commitment to the liberal arts.

Our Vision

- To provide appropriate pedagogies - including class size - and environments (classrooms, equipment, resources, and technology) that will lead to student retention and success as well as an increase in the number of majors and minors.
- To help students see themselves as professionals, as part of a discipline with skills and abilities valuable in the business, teaching, publishing, or post-graduate work.
- To give students a sense of themselves as citizens of a larger community by encouraging participation in service learning and in diverse and international course work and programming.
- To assure that students encounter creativity crucial to English studies through theatre productions, readings by professional writers, and their own creative and critical production and presentation.
- To balance the needs of general education - communication, diversity, global perspectives, interdisciplinary studies - with those of the major.
- To acquire adequate funding to support the department's contributions to general education and the liberal arts through departmental budgets and hiring.
- To value faculty scholarship and service through greater support for and participation in activities of the profession.

Our Values

- Convey knowledge of literary history, literary forms, literary theory, and a wide variety of texts and a wide array of vocabularies and practices used to consider them.
- Give students an understanding of an appreciation for the English language.
- Provide students with sophisticated writing and critical thinking skills useful not only in the academy but also in the world at large.
- Offers opportunities to explore identity, values, manners, and morals.

Revised English Syllabus from 2020-21 Onwards Under Choice Based Credit System

Introduction

The turn of the twenty first century has made the English Language skills a passport to the job market to all job seekers. Ability to communicate well in English has become a hallmark of good educational foundation and a prerequisite for all graduates. The students are expected to possess a measurable knowledge and a set of skills in using English language in personal and professional life. The present course English Praxis in three parts offers suitable context to teach, learn and practice target language skills. Each part of the course aims at certain specified skills which are taught through various text-based classroom activities and the English Language Laboratory activities. The syllabus of the course offers an open platform to the teacher to facilitate active participatory learning to the students. Hence the whole course is offered in three semesters. The first part of the course offers fundamentals of the English language in five units: Listening, Speaking, Grammar, Writing and Soft Skills. These introductory units are developed into full length courses in the subsequent semesters in addition to Reading Skills so as to prepare the learner into a fully equipped individual.

In addition to the classroom interaction, the course also aims at language enhancement through various ICT based online and offline activities in the English Language Laboratory. Each Unit is reinforced with Laboratory activities. The College administration will bestow special attention to make the English Praxis course an activity oriented one. The innovative methods and creativity of the English faculty will enhance the learners' participation in teaching and learning.
