Detailed Report on a Seminar entitled
"Resume Writing" on February 26, 2023

At SLN Degree College, Anantapur, a seminar on "Resume Writing" was held for third-year students on February 26, 2023, organised by the Competitive Examinations and Career Counselling cell of the college. The purpose of the seminar was to give students the knowledge and skills they needed to create effective resumes that would improve their chances of landing jobs and to know future career opportunities. The seminar took place in the seminar hall with 228 students and ran for three hours, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm.

The seminar kicked off with an overview of the significance of a strong resume in today's cutthroat job market. Dr Nataraj K, a career counsellor and associate professor of computer science, at SSGS Degree College, Guntakal, started his presentation by presenting interesting data and trends regarding how employers evaluate resumes.

Dr Nataraj K discussed the critical elements of a resume during the session and gave thorough explanations for each section. He emphasised the value of a compelling objective statement that amplifies the applicant's career objectives and is tailored to the particular job or internship being sought. The speaker also emphasised the value of writing a succinct and focused summary that highlights the student's most important abilities, experiences, and accomplishments.

The seminar covered the appropriate formatting and structure of a resume, including the use of headings, bullet points, and consistent styling. Dr Nataraj K highlighted the importance of clear and error-free content, emphasizing that attention to detail and proofreading are vital aspects of resume writing. To engage the audience, the speaker shared numerous examples of both effective and ineffective resumes, pointing out the strengths and weaknesses of each. This practical approach allowed students to grasp the essential components of a successful resume and avoid common pitfalls.

Additionally, the seminar provided valuable insights on tailoring resumes to specific job descriptions. The speaker guided students on how to analyze job postings and customize their resumes to match the required skills and qualifications. He also emphasized the need for quantifying achievements and providing measurable results wherever possible, as this adds credibility and impact to a resume. During the seminar's final section, students had the chance to speak with the speaker one-on-one and ask questions.

Most of the attendees' comments were favourable. Students expressed appreciation for the seminar and praised the speaker's subject matter expertise and captivating delivery style. Many students expressed that they now felt more prepared to write powerful resumes and that they were eager to put the knowledge they had learned during the seminar to use in their job search.
